

17—Ray Seaman, of Kreamer, Ur- 18—elected assistant principal of local public schools vice Prof. Paul 19—resigned. 20—Trinity Lutheran Sunday school picnic at park. 21—Harry A. Coryell, Esq., of Sha- mokin Dam, practicing in Northumber- land county, opens law offices in Alle- man building, North Market street. 22—Joint Instruction Camp at Selins- grove pay roll last month was $31,981.35, of which the State paid $17,993.20 and the Federal Government the balance. This was one of the first camps of this nature held in the United States. 23—Interior of the Masonic Temple audi- torium, the home of "The Movies," be- ing remodeled. 24—Work of improvements at the First Lutheran Church under way. 25—Bucker Family reunion at Park. 26—Illustrated lecture on "Here and there" by Dr. E. P. Men-	opened by enthusiastic east enders. Brick laying commences on the new addition to St. Paul's Reformed Church. 25—A biplane arrives for experiment- al purposes on the site of brigade head- quarters above town, same having been constructed at the Barber Car building at Rolling Green by a Sunbury boy. Machine attracts much attention. 26—The Selinsgrove Times replaces its Linotype by a larger model. 29—Local Farmers Equity Lodge and local band at big picnic at Forry's Grove, below Kantz. 30—Biplane makes several flights over Penn's Creek above town. 31—A new epoch in local history. Bi- plane completely circles Selinsgrove and outskirts to the wonderment of all. Factories temporarily shut down to witness the novelty. Flyer returns to camp site successfully. Methodist and Reformed Sunday school picnic at park.
---	---

W. A. Arbogast Bible Class of First Lutheran Church holds a ham and egg supper in Canal Basin Park.

4—Firemen leave for Lewistown, accompanied by Shamokin Dam Band, to participate in Annual Firemen Field Day.

5—Firemen return from Lewistown, having captured first prize for most distant delegation.

11—Local aviator wrecks biplane in the high tension line north of town, escapes injury, but wrecks machine completely and paralyzes trolley and local factories for almost an hour.

12—Co. G, 147th P. V. I., and friends attend Annual Bean Soup at the Park. A runaway team, frightened by a physically, according to State regulations.

Western Union Telegraph office moved to southwest corner Market and Pine streets, originally the Farmers Inn.

The Susquehanna River, with other local streams, reaches an abnormal low stage, claimed to be the record for many years.

Local physicians, Toole, Decker, Johnson and Wagenseller, receive appointments as inspectors for the various boroughs and townships.

1—Local suffragettes hold meeting at All Saints' Rectory.

Receivers of the S. & S. Electric Railway Co. place an hourly schedule

From "A Chronology of Selinsgrove, Pennsylvania, Volume II: 1851-1920" by William M. Schnure